

Underlying Competencies

Interaction Skills are presented by the BA ability to relate, cooperate, and communicate with different kinds of people including executives, sponsors, colleagues, team members, developers, vendors, learning and development professionals, end users, customers, and SME.